Centrestage Theatre Company Presents: The Wedding Singer (Musical)

Let's head back to the 1980s! Rock star wannabe Robbie Heart is New Jersey's most in-demand wedding singer as "love is what I do". However, when his own wedding plans go down the pan and he is left standing at the altar, Robbie's heartbreak and grief suddenly make him the worst wedding singer you can find. He ruins every wedding he plays at until he connects with Julia, a pretty young waitress who dreams of her own perfect wedding. There's just one problem: she's already engaged to Glen, a rich, shallow Wall Street broker. Despite Robbie and Julia's growing feelings, a series of miscommunications lead them away from each other. When Julia elopes with Glen to Las Vegas, Robbie decides to play the gig of his life to win her heart and her hand in marriage.

Performances from Saturday October 25 till Saturday November 15. Wednesday to Saturday nights at 7.30pm with matinees on Sunday October 26, November 2, November 9 at 2pm.

Centrestage Theatre Company Gala 2025 A World of Food & Theatre

The Centrestage Gala returns for its highly anticipated second instalment - an unforgettable evening celebrating food, theatre, and community, all in support of fundraising for Centrestage Theatre Company.

This year's theme takes you around the world, pairing iconic musicals and stage shows with dishes inspired by their settings. Enjoy canapés and bubbles on arrival, followed by a journey of flavours curated by master chef Kevin Blakeman, each course matched to spectacular live performances.

The evening will be hosted by award-winning comedian Nick Rado, keeping the night flowing with laughter and energy. Guests will also have the chance to bid in both our live and silent auctions, with all proceeds directly supporting the theatre's future productions and programmes. Saturday 15 November, 7pm All Tickets $129 per person.

Fantail Farm Productions (Run by our Theatre Managers Ross & Stephanie McKellar), with the support of Centrestage Theatre Company

Are proud to continue the legacy of the late Tim Bray QSM, by staging his iconic Christmas Play – The Santa Claus Show at Centrestage Theatre for five performances in December.

Ho ho ho – Off we go! Join our hero Kelly on an epic adventure, dashing through the snow, and laughing all the way to the North Pole. Along the way, you'll find yourself singing, giggling, and embarking on a magical journey as Kelly learns the true sentiment of Christmas. Bring along your little elves (and even some big ones) for a truly entertaining Christmas show that will fill your souls with jolly holiday cheer!

Performances Friday December 19 at 7pm, Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 at 10.30am and 1pm daily.
